

Physicians for Global Survival presents:

CHILDREN IN OUR WORLD

Helping our younger generation navigate a complex and confusing world with understanding and compassion.

This set of 4 illustrated, hard cover books addresses critical & current global issues of Poverty and Hunger, Refugees and Migrants, Racism and Intolerance & Global Conflict at a primary school level with sensitive definitions and explanations to inspire young minds toward solutions.

These books, thoughtfully written by Louise Spilsbury & Ceri Roberts with meaningful illustrations by Hanane Kai, were originally published in Great Britain and brought to North America by B.E.S. Publishing.

Physicians for Global Survival wants to bring Children in Our World to young minds across Canada.

Please buy a set of Children in Our World for the younger generation in your life and consider buying an extra set to donate to your local primary school's library or sponsor a set to be donated to a school library across Canada on your behalf through PGS.

HELP GIVE CHILDREN THE TOOLS THEY NEED FOR TODAY & FOR TOMORROW.

Physicians for Global Survival is a national organization that is concerned about global health and is committed to:

the abolition of nuclear weapons

the prevention of war

the promotion of nonviolent means of conflict resolution

social justice in a sustainable world.

Proceeds from Children in Our World sets purchased through PGS will help:

purchase additional Children in Our World sets for schools across Canada develop an updated version of PGS' popular Peaceful Childhoods kit for parents & educators develop online youth learning modules on peace & global health issues

$45 for each set of 4 books
Shipping cost: $10 for the first set only
