No More Killing
Anis, Song # 110, 160 bpm, for Glenn

In the land of the free there is no more

G D G C

killing and no threats to kill and no bets to kill. Like a bell in the night that is gently ringing all the kids are singing it now. We are cheerful and we are proud that is part of what non-killing is about. We vote for non-violence all the politicians, senators and presidents. - Come to the land where there's no more killing and no threats to kill.

G D

G Em D G F7 Bm

A D C B7 A

and no bets to kill. How would you feel when there's no-more killing, like a dream fulfilling.

filling at last. We went all the way from a lethal tradition, from a deadly competition.

- We went all the way from a lethal tradition, from a deadly super.
Adagio

Admission, from a killing co-a-li-tion. - it's a le-thal tra-di-tion. - Mm mm

The world is a pub-lic - space I can read and hear you I can see your face. If man needs to go to war, there's a place for that but don't kill no more. Come to the Anis, Song #110, 160 bpm, for Glenn

Adagio

How would you feel when there's no more killing-like a dream fulfilling at last.

land where there's no more killing and no threats to kill and no bets to kill.

And silence.

All that is.

is no more killing like a dream fulfilling at last.